UK Parliamentary Questions

Community Development Foundation

Andrew Griffiths: To ask the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government what payments and grants the Community Development Foundation made in relation to the prevention of extremism since its inception. [43850]

Andrew Stunell: The Department for Communities and Local Government has not provided any payment or grant to the Community Development Foundation in relation to the prevention of extremism since its inception.

Andrew Griffiths: To ask the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government what individual payments his Department made to (a) the Community Development Foundation and (b) its associated bodies in each of the last three years; and for what purpose in each case. [43851]

Andrew Stunell: The Department for Communities and Local Government provided £2,500 to the Muslim Council of Britain for a guest table at the council leadership dinner held on 22 February 2010. DCLG has not provided any further funding to the Muslim Council of Britain for the organisation to undertake work or projects.

For an interim period, funding for the Mosques and Imams National Advisory Board (MINAB) was routed through the council as one of MINAB's founding members as MINAB had not then acquired independent charitable status, and as a result did not have its own bank account. Funding for MINAB was made directly to them as soon as they became an independent organisation. The funding was to support them to improve standards in mosques (£116,000 in 2008-09 and £58,000 in 2009-10).

Muslim Council of Britain has a large and wide ranging national membership of organisations that are affiliated to it. Of these, DCLG has funded the following organisations through the Community Leadership Fund:

- Muslim Youth Helpline-£30,650 (2008-09), £61,888 (2009-10), £64,767 (2010-11) to build their capacity to extend the reach of their support services to vulnerable young people,
- Karimia Institute-£67,180 (2008-09), £50,000 (2009-10), £50,000 (2010-11) for youth leadership training.
- Islamic Society of Britain-£20,000 (2008-09) for developing the Islamic Awareness Week website to promote positive understanding of Islam to other communities.

- Young Muslims UK-£20,000 (2008-09), £5,000 (2009-10) to promote talent among young Muslims
- Muslim Aid-£5,000 (2009-10) for part-sponsorship of Muslim Aid's 25th Anniversary.

UK Parliament Early Day Motion

Robert Halfon (1551) Funding for the Quilliam Foundation - That this House notes the review of funding of the Quilliam Foundation; believes that ever since Ed Hussain and Maajid Nawaz set up Quilliam it has been a beacon for rational and moderate debate on the interlinked problems of extremist Islamism and Islamophobia; further believes that Quilliam has made an important contribution to social cohesion in the UK and that Quilliam's work is in harmony with the policies of the Prime Minister and the Cabinet; and calls on the Government to continue its financial support for Quilliam so that its vital work can continue.

Ban calls on Lebanon and Israel to fulfil obligations and consolidate stability

Lebanon's paralysis over forming a government has prevented progress in implementing some of its key obligations in the United Nations resolution that ended the fighting between Israel and Hizbollah in 2006, Secretary General Ban Ki-moon says in his latest report on the issue.

At the same time he calls on Israel to take the necessary "visible steps" towards implementation of its obligations. ...

... both sides have yet to fulfil all the terms of the resolution. Israel has yet to withdraw from northern Ghajar and the adjacent area north of the Blue Line separating the countries, which Mr. Ban urges it to do as soon as possible.

At the same time he voices concern at the almost daily violations of Lebanese sovereignty by Israeli over-flights of Lebanese. ...

... Mr. Ban terms the continued presence of Hizbollah and other groups “a serious challenge” the State’s ability to exercise full sovereignty and control over the territory. ... He notes Israel’s assertion that Hizbollah continues to build up its military presence and capacity, including within the UNIFIL area, but writes that to date “UNIFIL has neither been provided with, nor found, evidence of the unauthorized transfer of arms into its area of operations.”

Citing Israeli “allegations of significant breaches of the arms embargo across the border” between Lebanon and Syria, he adds: “While the United Nations takes these allegations seriously, it is not in a position to verify this information independently.”

But he also notes that Hizbollah “asserts that it maintains a substantial military arsenal separate from that of the Lebanese State for defensive purposes against Israel.” ...
