Holocaust

House of Commons Oral Answer

Topical Questions: Department for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities
The Secretary of State for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities (Michael Gove):
This Government are committed to ensuring that we have a fitting memorial to the holocaust, and we will be bringing forward legislation to ensure that we can do just that. That legislation has been designated a hybrid Bill, which, Mr Speaker, you and others will be aware adds an additional layer of complexity to legislating for that memorial. I repeat at this Dispatch Box my commitment on behalf of this Government: we will do everything possible to legislate, consonant with our responsibilities to this House and to the other place, with the maximum level of speed and with unwavering commitment, because we know that, as the voices of those directly affected by the holocaust fade, we must do everything we can to ensure that there is a fitting memorial to this country’s role and place in supporting them.
Lord (Tariq) Ahmad of Wimbledon

Shocked to learn of the tragic death of 2-year-old Mohammed al-Tamimi after being shot by Israeli security forces on Thursday. My thoughts and prayers are with Mohammed’s family. An inquiry is underway & the UK calls on Israel to complete a swift and transparent investigation.
